The Second World War

The Second World War ended in 1945 with the surrender of Germany in May and Japan in September of that year.

D-Day, the Allied invasion of Normandy, took place on 6 June 1944, involving over 150,000 troops landing on five beaches.

The attack on Pearl Harbor on 7 December 1941 brought the United States into the war the following day.

The Battle of Stalingrad, fought between 1942 and 1943, is considered the turning point of the war on the Eastern Front.